Update on Military Status of Sgt. Charity Witmer and Spc. Rachel Witmer

1:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 27

Wisconsin National Guard State Headquarters
2400 Wright Street, Madison

The Wisconsin National Guard will hold a news conference Tuesday, April 27, to provide an update on the military status of Army National Guard Sgt. Charity Witmer and Spc. Rachel Witmer, whose sister Michelle was killed in action in Iraq April 9. Both Charity and Rachel are also members of the Wisconsin National Guard who were serving on active duty in Iraq.

The news conference will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Wisconsin National Guard state headquarters, 2400 Wright Street, Madison.

The Wisconsin National Guard will have a statement from Maj. Gen. Al Wilkening, the Adjutant General of Wisconsin. There will also be a joint statement from Sgt. Charity Witmer and Spc. Rachel Witmer. The Witmer family is not expected to be present at the news conference at this time.

Following the statements, a public affairs official from the Wisconsin National Guard will be available to take questions.
